

PEAK PERFORMANCE POLICE TRAINING

Modern police policy, creation and revision

Police policy is the foundation of any police agency. Now more than ever it is imperative that leaders understand the importance and liability concerns their agency could face without training and providing their officers with realistic and lawful policy.

This 16-hour course will require students to successfully create policy that directly relates to current issues that departments face (use of force, vehicle pursuits, etc.)

This course is informative, interactive and scenario based. This instructor lead audio and video presentation is used to teach all levels of policing from rookie to veteran.

Course taught by Prof. Douglas Miller
Deputy Chief (Ret), MSCJ

COURSES AVAILABLE IN PERSON, ONLINE
VIA WEBINAR OR ONLINE COURSE
